Don't miss this rare opportunity to secure this prime development site, already generating strong returns for land banking in one of Hervey Bays' most exclusive locations - The sellers have given us clear instructions that they want the property Under Contract Urgently!

This character-filled - low-set "Queenslander- style home was built around 1950 and has been tastefully refurbished throughout while maintaining its original charm with nothing left to do except move in and enjoy the lifestyle that comes with living in this idyllic location. Or hold this charming home as an investment property already achieving strong returns as a holiday rental while deciding how to unlock future gains given the site and location.

Perfectly positioned on a large elevated 860m2 allotment one street back from the beautiful Esplanade and beach this site offers so many development opportunities. You can easily walk to Wet Side Water Park where you have a selection of cafés and restaurants to enjoy, as well as Sea Front Oval which hosts many fantastic outdoor events throughout each year. Not to mention the main street shopping precinct, which will become Hervey Bays NEW Central business district.
